

Amino Cal Plus

Stud formula

Amino Cal Plus Stud Formula is a specially formulated concentrated range of vitamins, minerals and essential amino acids needed by the canine athlete to balance and correct deficiencies and imbalances which occur with increased work demands.

Building strong bones, tendons and ligaments requires a specific formulation of essential Amino Acids, Calcium, Phosphorus, Vitamins, Minerals and Iron which is aimed at maximising the growth and development of brood bitches, stud dogs and puppies. It is necessary, when breeding to provide a healthy diet and a supplementation of balanced nutrients.

Amino Cal Stud Formula provides essential amino acids - the building blocks from which proteins are made. Amino acids are involved in energy production, hormone production and have antioxidant effects. Inadequate intake of Amino Acids will restrict muscle growth.

The sporting oral nutrients DMG (N, N-Dimethylglycine) and Creatine have been added to increase the performance needs of the racing greyhound.
